Understood Better EachDay

The most successful business man is the one who knows every detail of his business and does not depend upon a pull for his success. Each day this is better understood. In no business is a detailed knowledge more essential than in the Building Trade. If you want an estimate on any work in my line, I'll be pleased to give you the benefit of my many years experience.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," hich comes to the Broadway theater is afternoon and evening, is the suc-astul drama which has been written around her life and that of Lovey Mary and their neighbors. Theatergoers feel kindly toward Mrs. Wiggs and thousands who have read Mrs. Rice's books recall her first glimpse. And tow Mrs. Wiggs is a permanent figure upon the stage, the central character of a quaint character play dramatized from Mrs. Rice's books by her friend and neighbor, Mrs. Anne Crawford Flexner. It was beyond doubt from the start that Mrs. Wiggs would eventually find herself before the footlights, for her popularity in book form reached almost at once a height achieved by but few creations of the novelist. Everybody has been charmed by the cheerful Christian philosophy of this bright-faced little woman who ound her life and that of Lovey Mary by the cheerful Christian philosophy of this bright-faced little woman who thought it "sinful to fuss" and whose constant prayer was "O, Lord, keep me from gettin' sour." Though so humble in type, she has become a sort of incarnation of the American spirit of optimism, and some of her quaint homely saying bid fair to pass into household maxims. The cast of players has been carefully selected. Olive West will be this season's Mrs. Wiggs. Harry Euchanan will again portray. Harry Buchanan will again portray Mr. Stubbins, Minnle Milne has also been re-engaged for the role of Mis' Hazy. Others in the cast are Parke Patton, Adelaide Byrd, E. G. Romme, Sam Ronan, Edward Lyons, Alma Morrison, Marcia Harris, Myra Brooke and Master William Wood Silman.

THE AUDITORIUM.

The week beginning April 12th will bring with it one of the best shows seen at the Auditorium this season.

The Three Marvelous Mells will head The Three Marveloas Mells will head the bill with some hair raising trapete work and unique revolving ariel gymnastics. This act is something entirely different from anything that has been at this popular vandeville bouse. Bessie Rosa, the character singing comedienne, is a young soubrette with a neat act which will surely take.

Damsell & Farr, who are noted throughout the vaudeville world for their beautiful singing, will be a delight to those who appreciate good voices, and in their comedy singing travesty of some of the most popular operas they will have a good feature act.

operas they will have a good feature act.

Ned Norton, whose neat stage appearance alone makes a hit, will be heard in a singing and talking act introducing "The Thoroughbred," a character which he originated in the "Mimic World."

In the moving picture line for next week "The Persistent Suitor," one of Edison's best films, and over one thousand feet long, is a neat, clean picture and will cause many a hearty laugh. Among the other pictures will be "The Janitor's Bottle," "In the Goiden Days of "43" and "The Landlady's Portrait."
